1 authorities and declarations submitted by the Parties in support thereof; and good cause appearing,

2 HEREBY ORDERS AS FOLLOWS:

3 1. Unless otherwise defined herein, all capitalized terms used herein shall have the
4 meanings ascribed to them in the Settlement Agreement.

5 2. The Court grants preliminary approval of the settlement as set forth in the 6 Settlement Agreement and finds the terms to be within the range of reasonableness of a settlement
7 that ultimately could be granted approval by the Court at the Final Approval hearing described
8 below.

9 3. For purposes of the settlement, the Court finds that the proposed Settlement Class is 10 ascertainable and that there is a sufficiently well-defined community of interest among the 11 Settlement Class in questions of law and fact. Therefore, for settlement purposes only, the Court
12 grants conditional certification of a Settlement Class of Plaintiffs and all other persons (a) who
13 entered into a Conditional Sale Contract, (b) who were issued a Statutory Notice by ACA at any 14 time from December 2, 2015 through and including February 11, 2021, and (c) against whose
15 account ACA assessed a Deficiency Balance. Excluded from the Settlement Class are any persons
16 against whom a final court judgment with respect to a Deficiency Balance was entered prior to 17 December 2, 2019, who have filed for bankruptcy without a dismissal of the bankruptcy case, or 18 who are deceased.

19 4. For purposes of the settlement, the Court designates Jay Sherrard and Dolly West
20 as Class Representatives, and Brandon A. Block of Law Offices of Brandon A. Block, A
21 Professional Corporation, and Alexander B. Trueblood of the Trueblood Law Firm, APC as Class
22 Counsel.

23 5. The Court confirms Kroll Business Services as the Administrator, to perform the 24 duties set forth in the Agreement.

25 6. The Court approves the form and content (completed to comport with the dates in 26 this Order) of the Class Notice attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

27 7. The Court finds that mailing the Class Notice to each Settlement Class member
28 meets the requirements of California law and due process, is the best notice practicable under the

02/09/2022

1 circumstances, and shall constitute valid, due and sufficient notice to all persons entitled thereto.
2 The form and method of notice fully complies with the requirements of California Code of Civil
3 Procedure § 382, California Rules of Court 3.766 and 3.769, the California and United States
4 Constitutions, and other applicable law.

5 8. The Administrator shall mail the Class Notice to all Settlement Class members by
6 first class mail on or before the date that is thirty (30) days after the issuance of this Order
7 (“Notice Date”). As provided in the Agreement, ACA shall pay all costs and expenses for printing,
8 preparing and mailing the Class Notice.

9 9. The Court approves the procedures for Settlement Class members to opt out of or 10 object to the settlement, as set forth in the Agreement and Class Notice.

11 10. Objections to the settlement shall be heard, and any papers or briefs submitted in 12 support of said objections shall be considered by the Court only if, on or before May 9, 2022, said
13 objectors shall mail and file with the Clerk of the Superior Court written notice of their intention to 14 object, together with supporting papers stating specifically the factual basis and legal grounds of 15 the objection, and shall serve copies thereof together with proof of service on or before said date
16 upon counsel and the Administrator at the addresses set forth below. The written objections must 17 contain all of the following: (1) The name of the Action: “Jay Sherrard, et al. v. American Credit
18 Acceptance, LLC, Superior Court of California for the County of Los Angeles Case
19 No. 19STCV43101;” (2) the objector’s full name, current address and telephone number; (3) a 20 clear statement of each objection; (4) all supporting evidence and briefing the objector wishes to 21 have considered in support of the objection; and (5) the objector’s signature and the date of his or 22 her signature. No Settlement Class member shall be entitled to be heard and no objection shall be
23 considered unless these requirements are satisfied. Any Settlement Class member who does not
24 make his or her objection in the manner provided shall be deemed to have waived such objection
25 and shall forever be foreclosed from making any objection to the fairness or adequacy of the 26 proposed settlement as set forth in the Agreement unless otherwise ordered by the Court.
27 Objections shall be served as follows:

                  12.     Any member of the Settlement Class who is not excluded from the Settlement Class

                  13.     Any member of the Settlement Class who desires to be excluded from the Settlement Class, must mail by May 9, 2022 a written request for exclusion addressed to

02/09/2022

5 Case No. 19STCV43101;" (2) the requesting person's full name, current address and telephone
6 number; (3) a statement of the requesting person's intent to exclude himself or herself; and (4) the
7 requesting person's signature and the date he or she signed it. All such persons who properly mail
8 requests for exclusion from the Settlement Class shall not be Settlement Class members and shall 9 have no rights with respect to the settlement and no interest in the settlement benefits.

10 14. The Court will hold a Final Approval hearing on July 28, 2022 at 9:15 a.m. before
11 The Honorable Richard L. Fruin, in Department 15 of the Los Angeles County Superior Court,
12 located at 111 North Hill Street, Los Angeles, California 90012, to determine whether the 13 proposed settlement of the Action on the terms and conditions provided for in the Agreement is
14 fair, just, reasonable and adequate to the Settlement Class and should be approved by the Court,
15 and whether a Final Approval Order and Final Judgment should be entered herein. Plaintiffs'

17 Court and served on ACA's counsel by July 6, 2022.

18 15. At or after the Final Approval hearing, the Court may enter a Final Approval Order
19 and Final Judgment in accordance with the Agreement that will adjudicate the rights of all
20 Settlement Class members to the extent provided in the Agreement.

21 16. The Final Approval hearing described in this paragraph may be postponed,
22 adjourned, transferred or continued by order of the Court without further notice to the Settlement
23 Class (except those who have filed timely and valid objections).

24 17. Plaintiffs shall file a Motion for attorney's fees, costs and expenses, on or before

HON. RICHARD L. FRUIN, JR.

Exhibit 1

Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Los Angeles

NOTICE OF PROPOSED CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

IF YOUR VEHICLE WAS REPOSSESSED OR VOLUNTARILY SURRENDERED IN CALIFORNIA, AND YOU RECEIVED A NOTICE OF INTENT TO SELL OR DISPOSE OF YOUR CAR FROM AMERICAN CREDIT ACCEPTANCE, LLC, THIS NOTICE CONTAINS IMPORTANT INFORMATION THAT MAY AFFECT YOU

– PLEASE READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY –

This Notice is being sent by the Class Administrator, pursuant to an order of the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Los Angeles. It is not from a lawyer. YOU ARE NOT BEING SUED.

This notice summarizes the terms of a proposed class action settlement and its benefits to you. This notice also describes what you can do to object to the proposed settlement or to request exclusion from the class. If you wish to remain in the class, be bound by the settlement and receive the benefits of the settlement, you are not required to do anything, including contact the court or the attorneys.

Basic Information – This Action

On December 2, 2019, plaintiffs Jay Sherrard and Dolly West (“Plaintiffs”) filed an action against American Credit Acceptance, LLC (“ACA”) in the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Los Angeles entitled, Jay Sherrard, et al. v. American Credit Acceptance, LLC, Case No. 19STCV43101 (“Action”). Plaintiffs allege in the Action that ACA violated the Rees-Levering Automobile Sales Finance Act, Cal. Civ. Code §§ 2981, et seq. (“Rees-Levering Act”), and other laws, by issuing written notices to consumers after repossession or voluntary surrender of their motor vehicles (“NOIs”) that did not comply with the Rees-Levering Act. ACA denies the allegations made in the Action, and it denies any and all liability with respect to any claims alleged in the Action.

The court in charge of the Action is the Superior Court of the State of California for the County of Los Angeles (“Court”). The Court has not decided who is right or wrong in the Action. Although no determination has been made as to the merits of the Action, ACA is willing to enter into this settlement to end further litigation. The settlement is a compromise and should not be construed as an admission by ACA of any fault, wrongdoing or liability whatsoever.

This action is called a “class action” because Plaintiffs are class representatives suing on behalf of other people with similar claims, called “Settlement Class Members.” The parties have agreed to treat the Action as a class action for settlement purposes only.

02/06/2022

Who Is A Settlement Class Member?

Under the terms of the proposed settlement, you are a "Settlement Class Member" if all of the following apply to you:

- (1) You entered into a retail installment sale contract for the sale of a motor vehicle;
- (2) ACA issued you a written notice of intent to dispose of or sell a repossessed or surrendered motor vehicle at any time from December 2, 2015 through and including February 11, 2021;
- (3) Your vehicle was sold after repossession or surrender; and
- (4) A deficiency balance was assessed against your account.

Excluded are any persons against whom a final court judgment with respect to a deficiency balance was entered prior to December 2, 2019, who have filed for bankruptcy without a dismissal of the bankruptcy case, or who are deceased.

IF YOU ARE RECEIVING THIS NOTICE, ACA HAS DETERMINED FROM ITS RECORDS THAT YOU ARE A SETTLEMENT CLASS MEMBER.

The Settlement Benefits – What You Will Get

There are approximately 8,500 accounts belonging to Settlement Class Members, with deficiency balances assessed in those accounts totaling approximately $98,033,433.44.

If the settlement is approved by the Court, all Settlement Class Members will receive the benefits described below. If the settlement is not approved by the Court, Settlement Class Members will not get any benefits of the settlement and the parties will go back to Court for a trial on the merits of the Action. The parties have made their best efforts to negotiate a settlement that is fair and reasonable under the circumstances.

Settlement Class Benefits. For all Settlement Class Members, ACA agrees, to the extent it has not done so already, to waive and not to pursue collection of any deficiency balances remaining after the sale of the repossessed or surrendered vehicles which are the subject of the Action. This means ACA will not take any steps to collect any money on your account. ACA will also request that the Credit Reporting Agencies delete the trade lines referencing Settlement Class members' accounts. ACA will request that all references to such accounts, including any deficiency balances owing to ACA after the sale of the vehicles for those accounts, be deleted, and ACA will make no future reports concerning the deficiency balances allegedly owed by Settlement Class Members.

Important Tax Notice. ACA has agreed that it will not issue an IRS Form 1099-C to any Settlement Class member in connection with the deficiency waiver unless it is ordered by the IRS to do so. Still, any benefits received under the settlement may or may not be the subject of state or federal taxation, depending on your circumstances. Class Counsel are not tax attorneys, accountants or advisors and you are advised to seek separate advice on matters on taxation.

No Requirement to Do Anything to Get Benefits. You do not need to do anything, or call or write anyone, to receive the benefits of the settlement. You are going to automatically receive those benefits, as long as the Court approves the settlement. However, if you have questions, or want to update your contact information, you may contact Kroll Business Services, the Administrator of the class action settlement, at the address or, telephone number set forth below.

Attorney's Fees and Award to Class Representative. Class Counsel will seek attorney's fees and costs of $225,000, subject to approval by the Court at the final approval hearing referred to below. Any fees and costs sought by Class Counsel and approved by the Court will be separately paid by ACA and will not diminish your benefits under the settlement. In addition, the Class Representatives will request an award of $10,000 each, for their services to the Settlement Class, to be approved by the Court at the final approval hearing. Any service award(s) to the Class Representative will be separately paid by ACA and will not diminish your benefits under the settlement.

The Settlement Release – What You Will Give Up

In exchange for the benefits described herein, every Settlement Class Member gives ACA a release and agrees to be bound by all court orders in the Action, and every Settlement Class Member will be bound by the terms of the settlement once it is final. A release means you cannot sue or be part of any other lawsuit against ACA about the claims or issues in this Action ever again, including the NOIs and the collection and credit reporting on your Accounts.

Specifically, if the Court approves the proposed settlement, Plaintiff, and each Settlement Class Member who does not request exclusion, and their respective heirs, executors, administrators, representatives, agents, attorneys, successors, predecessors-in-interest and assigns will be deemed to have fully released and forever discharged ACA and any of ACA's present and former parents, subsidiaries, "d/b/a names" and fictitious business names, its/their officers, directors, attorneys, accountants, agents, representatives, employees, heirs, insurance carriers, predecessors, affiliates, agents, or debt buyers or successors in interest (provided the accounts are repurchased from the debt buyer or successor in interest) from any and all rights, duties, obligations, claims, actions, causes of action or liabilities, whether known or unknown, existing or having accrued as of the date of the Final Judgment that were asserted or could have been asserted in the Action and relate to or arise out of ACA's written notice of intent to dispose of or sell a repossessed or surrendered motor vehicle to Settlement Class Members, ACA's assessment of deficiency balances against Settlement Class Members' accounts, ACA's collection or attempted collection of deficiency balances from Settlement Class Members, and/or ACA's reporting to the Consumer Reporting Agencies of Settlement Class Members' accounts.

Upon Court approval of the settlement, a judgment will be entered fully and finally settling the Action as to all Settlement Class Members, except those who properly and timely request exclusion from the Action, as discussed below.

02/09/2022

Your Rights – Exclusion

As a Settlement Class Member, you are automatically included in the settlement, unless you request to be excluded or “opt out.” If you exclude yourself, you will not receive any benefits of the settlement, but you will not be bound by any judgment or release in this Action. If you seek to be excluded, you may not object to the settlement.

To opt out of the Settlement Class, you must send a written request for exclusion to the Administrator at the address provided below, by First Class Mail postmarked no later than May 9, 2022. Do not send your request for exclusion to the Court or counsel. The Administrator will notify the Court and all counsel of your request for exclusion. The written request for exclusion must contain all of the following: (1) The name of the Action: “Jay Sherrard, et al. v. American Credit Acceptance, LLC, Superior Court of California for the County of Los Angeles Case No. 19STCV43101;” (2) your full name, current address and telephone number; (3) a statement of your intent to exclude yourself; and (4) your signature and the date you signed it. If you do not timely follow these procedures to exclude yourself, your rights will be determined in this Action if this settlement is finally approved.

Your Rights – Objection to the Settlement

You may object to the settlement unless you have excluded yourself. To object to the settlement, you must file your objection with the Court and serve your objection on Class Counsel, ACA’s Counsel, and the Administrator at the addresses provided below no later than May 9, 2022. The written objection must contain all of the following: (1) The name of the Action: “Jay Sherrard, et al. v. American Credit Acceptance, LLC, Superior Court of California for the County of Los Angeles Case No. 19STCV43101;” (2) your full name, current address and telephone number; (3) a clear statement of each objection; (4) all supporting evidence and briefing you wish to have considered in support of the objection; and (5) your signature and the date of your signature. Objectors are not required to attend the Final Approval Hearing (discussed below), but if you intend to appear or have your separate attorney appear, you must state in your written objection, “I intend to appear at the hearing.”

The Final Approval Hearing

In order for the settlement to be implemented, the Court must finally approve the proposed settlement. The Court has set the “Final Approval Hearing” for July 28, 2022 at 9:15 a.m. (subject to change by the Court without further notice), in Department 15 of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, located at 111 North Hill Street, Los Angeles, California 90012, to determine whether the proposed settlement should be approved as fair, reasonable and adequate; the amount of Plaintiff’s counsel’s reasonable attorney’s fees; the amount of the class representative’s incentive award; and whether the settlement should be finally approved. Class Counsel will apply to the Court for reasonable attorney’s fees and expenses in an amount up to $225,000, plus incentive awards of $10,000 to each of the named Plaintiffs and Class

Representatives, Jay Sherrard and Dolly West, to be paid by ACA separately from the benefits to Settlement Class Members.

You do not need to hire a lawyer, but you may if you want to do so. You and the Settlement Class are already represented by Class Counsel listed below, at no out-of-pocket cost to you.

The settlement will not take effect unless and until: (1) the Court approves the settlement at the Final Approval Hearing; and (2) a Final Order and Judgment is entered by the Court and no longer subject to any appellate challenge. After the Court rules on the final approval and the time to appeal has expired or appeals are exhausted, the settlement will become final, and you will receive the class benefits set forth above. If the Court does not approve the settlement, Settlement Class Members will not receive any benefits described in this notice. It will be as if no settlement was reached, and the parties will continue to litigate the Action.
